The Hiſtory of John Bull's Children.

I Sir Humphry Polefworth, who formerly gave the World a true and faithful Account of John Bull, and of his Mother, and his Siſter, and Wives, and his Servants, now write the Hiſtory of his Children, and how they were got, and how they were educated, and what befel them. Courteous Reader, if thou haſt any Curioſity to know theſe Things, read the following Chapters and learn.

CHAP. I. Of ſeven natural Children, which John Bull had in his younger Days by Doll Secretary, his Mother's Maid; namely, three Boys, John, junior, or Maſter Jackey, Yorky, and Jerry; and four Girls, Penelope, Mary, Virgey, and Caroline: How the old Lady would ſuffer no Baſtards in her Family; and how the poor Infants were turned adrift on the Fiſh Ponds as ſoon as born; how they landed on the Weſtern Shore, and were nurſed by a wild Bear, all under the Green-wood Tree.

CHAP. II. How John diſowned them, and left them to get over the Childuen's Diſorders the beſt Way they could, without paying a Farthing for Nurſes, or Apothecary's Bills: And how, as ſoon as they had cut their Eye-Teeth, and able to walk alone, John claimed them for his own.

CHAP. III. How Maſter Jackey turned Fiſherman and Ship-Carpenter; Yorky and Jerry drove a great Trade; Miſs Penny dealt in Flour, called the Maid of the Mill, and never curteſied to any Body; how Mary and Virgey ſet up a Snuff-ſhop, and Caroline turned a Dry-ſalter, and ſold Indico; how they all flouriſhed exceedingly, and laid out every Penny they earned in their Father's Warehouſe.

CHAP. IV. Of two Children more, which John had afterwards in lawful Wedlock, viz. a Boy which he called Georgey, after his great Patron, and a Girl, which he called Peg, after his Siſter Margaret; how he crammed them with Sugar-Plumbs, and how they remained ſickly, and ricketty Brats at this Day.

CHAP. V. How young Maſter Baboon, old Lewis's only Son, fell in Love with Miſs Virgey; and how he came behind her with Intent to raviſh her; how ſhe ſqualed and alarmed her Dad.

CHAP. VI. How John called for his Stick and his Barge, and croſſed the Pond to ſave his Daughter's Virtue; how young Lewis gave him a confounded Rap on his Fingers, and drove him back, and then at his Daughter again.

CHAP. VII. How her Brother Jack came to her Aſſiſtance, and threw young Lewis on his Back; how old Lewis Baboon flew to help his Son, and carried Lord Strutt along with him: How John Bull returned, and muſtered all his Children at his Back, and to it they went.

CHAP. VIII. How they had a long Tuſtle; how John's Children ſaved their old Dad from a broken Head, and helped to ſeize young Lewis and tie him; how the old Folks agreed to leave young Lewis in Cuſtody, and drink Friends themſelves; and how John made his Children pay their Share of the Reckoning without giving them any of the Drink.

CHAP. IX. How John in his Cups bragged of his Exploits, and ſaid he had done all himſelf, and his Children nothing; how he made Choice of Fair George, the Gentle Shepherd, for his Houſe Steward, becauſe he could tell, without the Book, that two and three made five, and the Multiplication Table by Heart.

CHAP. X. The whole Stewardſhip of Fair George; how he neglected to proteſt Lewis Baboon's Note of Hand on the Day of Payment, releaſed Lord Strutt from a Mortgage on his Manor of Eaſtland; how he took an Averſion to Cyder, and would allow none to be drank in the Family; how he rummaged every Man's Cheſt for Pen, Ink, and Paper, and obliged thoſe he catched Writing, to ſtand a Top of the Table, with a wooden Neckcloth under their Chin, while he counted ſixty Time ſixty; and how this is called the Gentle Shepherd's Benefit of Clergy unto this Day.

CHAP. XI. How Fair George took an Antipathy to John's Children, becauſe he ſaid they put nothing into the Box at Chriſtmas; and when they came to pay their Shop Accounts, they brought in the Money at the Back-Door; how he adviſed John to brand them on the far Buttock, as they do ſtray Cattle, that he might know them to be his own.

CHAP. XII. How John's Children rode reſtiff, and ſwore they would not have the broad R ſtampt on their B—ckſ—des; how John, in heating the Irons, burnt his own Fingers moſt d—ly; how all his Neighbours laughed, and Fair George could not find him a Plaiſter.

CHAP. XIII. How John, in a Paſſion, kicked Fair George down Stairs, and rung up other Servants; how they adviſed him to conſult his Wife; and how Mrs. Bull bid him let his Children alone; that though born in Sin, they were his own Fleſh and Blood, and needed no Stamp to ſhew it; how John took her Advice, and let the Irons cool again; and how ſome ſuſpected if John's Fingers had not ſmarted, he would not have complied ſo ſoon.

CHAP. XIV. A Dialogue on Education, between Fair George and Lame Will; how Will proved it to be both cruel and impolitick to pinch Children till they cry, and then pinch them for crying; and how George anſwered, and ſaid nothing.

CHAP. XV. How John, by Means of his new Servants, became beloved of his Children, and reſpected by his Neighbours; how he obliged Lewis Baboon to beat down the North Wall of Eccleſdown Caſtle, becauſe it overlooked his Pond, and harboured Sea Gulls to goble up his Fiſh; how he made him alſo pay up his Note of Hand; and how Lord Strutt was———

But, Mr. Printer, I have given you enough to judge of the general Plan of this Hiſtory. Pray let me have your Opinion as to the Publication. My Notion at preſent is, to ſend it abroad in Sixpenny Numbers, and engage the Country Carriers to take it down; and it may paſs for Political an hundred Miles from Town.

A Copy of a Letter to the Right Reverend Thomas Lord Biſhop of Kildare, from Thomas Butler, Eſq; of Warminſter, in Wilts, concerning a REMEDY for the STONE and GRAVEL.

THE Benefit I received from the Daucus, or Wild Carrot, has been ſo great, that I thought it my Duty to Mankind to advertiſe its Virtues, and the Relief I received from it, in the Saliſbury Journal, about three Years ago, which was crowned with ſuch high Satisfaction, that I received Intelligence, that it had done great Cures on ſeveral People, who took it purely on the Recommendation of my Advertiſement.

"I had laboured under that painful Diſorder the Stone in the Kidney at leaſt forty-ſix Years, when, about four Years ſince, or ſomething more, it became ſo painful, that I was under an abſolute Neceſſity of quitting my annual Journey into Hants, and ſeek for Eaſe by any Means I could find it; but all in vain; it grew upon me ſo, that I could not ſit at Table to eat my Meat, but in the greateſt Pain; and finding, by Experience, I could have no more Eaſe in a recumbent Poſture, I was obliged to lye down wherever I came, either at Home or Abroad, and in that Poſture I converſed with my Friends, and in that Poſition eat my Dinner daily, and, in ſhort, I was ſtill followed by ſuch continual Pain, that I expected I had but a ſhort Time to live.

"I had applied to Phyſicians, Apothecaries, Quacks and Old Women, and, conformable to Directions, I made Uſe of Mr. Stephens's Medicine, and, naſeous as it was, I took about fourſcore Draughts of it, together with a full Doſe of the ill taſted Powder, that is a Part of the Recipe; but all in vain: I could find no Relief. In this miſerable Condition I recollected I had an Herbal, in which were preſcribed Remedies for many Diſorders: I providentially looked into it, and found the Wild Carrot ſtrongly recommended by Mr. Boyle. I immediately (it being the 1ſt or 2d of Auguſt) ſent a Perſon into the Fields to get me the Wild Carrot, which was accordingly done; I made it into a Tea, ſweetened it with Liſbon Sugar, and drank about two ordinary Tea-Pots full in a Day, each Pot containing a full Half-pint, the one for Breakfaſt, the other for Supper, eating with it as with other Tea, and in three Days Time the Pain began to grow weak and die away, and in five Days it quite left me, my Spirits revived, and I was reſtored (I bleſs God) to perfect Eaſe.

"I continued drinking this Tea till the 17th of December following, and then idly neglected it; the Diſorder returned; I had a ſhort Fit, which held me ſix Hours: I had again Recourſe to my Wild Carrot, and in a few Days got the better of it; ſince which I have enjoyed great Eaſe: I cannot ſay that I never felt Pain in the Kidneys, but this I can aver for Truth, that it is never enough to make me cry Oh! and that I think I never enjoyed better Health than I have done for theſe four laſt Years. This is the Time of the Year (Auguſt) when I got it. I will only ſay (though I know not how to have done with this Subject, where almoſt a Miracle has been wrought in my Favour) that it is to be gathered in Auguſt, and dried well in ſome Room in the Shade, and then put aſide in a cloſe Bin for Uſe: You are only to uſe the Heads or Seeds of it. I take ſix or ſeven Heads, and put them into the Tea-pot, and then put boiling Water upon them, and, after it has ſtood as other common Tea, drink it, generally dividing it into two Draughts. I forbear all Sorts of Salt-Meats (at leaſt ought to do ſo) and Strong Beer I rigidly refrain from; I drink about two or three Glaſſes of Wine after Dinner, and as much good Table-Beer as I have an Inclination to; I never drink any Thing in a Morning before or after Tea; I drink nothing after Tea in an Evening. It is ſomething forcing, but not violently, ſo it does not hurt in any Kind. You will ſay, perhaps, I am prejudiced in its Favour, but of this I am confident, I have enjoyed more Eaſe theſe laſt four Years than I ever did from the Age of Fourteen, and I find myſelf in better Health to that Time. I have not made any bloody, or coffee-ground Water, no not once ſince I took the Carrot-Tea, notwithſtanding I made ſuch, at Times, for more than twenty Years before. I am, &c.

THOMAS BUTLER."

"SIR,

"On reading Mr. Butler's Letter, I, who had been much afflicted with the Stone, betook myſelf to the Drinking the Wild Carrot-Tea; this was in the Month of October laſt, and ſince I have drank it, I have not felt any ſevere Pain; I have ſometimes, indeed, uneaſy Feelings, but they are the Feelings rather of Weight than of Pain, and generally terminate in my parting with a great Deal of looſe Gravel, much more than I was formerly uſed to part with. Whether this Medicine tends to the Diſſolution of a Stone, already concreted, or ſerves only to prevent a further Concretion, I cannot ſay; but it is no ſmall Happineſs, that whatever its Manner of Operation may be, I have, ever ſince I drank it, been free from any violent Pain: How long I ſhall continue ſo, God only knows. I am, &c.

Bath, Dec. 24. PHILIP FLETCHER."

To make DANCUS or DAUCUS Ale.

Take of the Daucus Seeds nine Ounces, Raiſins of the Sun eighteen Ounces; put them into a Bag, and hang in a Veſſel of ſix Gallons of good Ale; after it is worked, and when fine, after eight Days, drink three Pints a Day.

Copy of a Letter from Sir WILLIAM JOHNSON, to the Merchants, and trading People of Canada, dated Johnſon-Hall, May 15, 1766.

GENTLEMEN,

I HAVE received the Memorial you were pleaſed to addreſs to me concerning the Indian Trade, on which Article I wiſh it was in my Power to write ſatisfactorily.

The Government, from a Senſe of the many Riſques to which the Trade is liable, if carried on in the Indian Country, the Opportunities which it might give to Injuſtice, and the different Principles of Policy which induced the French to permit Trade every where, have thought proper to direct, that it ſhould be only carried on at certain Poſts, expreſſed in the Plan for regulating Indian Affairs (much approved of by the preſent Miniſtry) and the ſeveral Governors have granted their Licences accordingly; neither have the Lords of Trade made any Exception, or averted to the different Syſtem for the Trade in Canada.

I am well convinced, from Reaſons too many to be comprized within the Bounds of this Letter, that this Reſtriction upon the Indian Trade, will, in a ſhort Time, be found moſt agreeable to both Traders and Indians, and that the preſent contrary Opinions of the latter, are founded on a Cuſtom which had better be broke than kept, and which are not conſiſtent with the Policy of our Government.—Under theſe Circumſtances you will perceive, that whatever my Inclinations may be, it is not in my Power to do any Thing contrary to the Intention of his Majeſty, and the Lords of Trade and Plantations. The Regulations propoſed can be of no Uſe, if the Traders are permitted to go at Diſcretion beyond the Reach of the proper Officer, who is to have the Inſpection of the Trade.—As this Plan was wiſely and deliberately calculated, and is greatly approved of by thoſe now in Power at Home, I muſt be ſilent on that Head, and hope it may not affect your particular Intereſts ſo much as you ſuppoſe, as I am your really Well-wiſher, and heartily diſpoſed to ſerve you, in any Thing conſiſtent with my Duty, being Gentlemen, Your very obedient and very humble Servant, (Signed) WILLIAM JOHNSON.

PHILADELPHIA, AUGUST 14.

On Tueſday Night laſt, about Half an Hour after Eight, Mr. George Gray, of the Lower Ferry, as he was riding Home from Town, was attacked by a Man, with a Fuſee, on the Road, who demanded his Money, threatening him ſeveral Times, that if he did not deliver it directly, he was a dead Man, his Piece being cocked, and preſented at him. Mr. Gray told him repeatedly he had no Money, and deſired him to ſearch him, which he refuſed, ſaying he knew him, that he had Money, and aſked for his Pocket-Book; he was anſwered, he had none. He then ſtemed very angry; on which Mr. Gray ſaid, he had a Watch, which he immediately took. After this he ſaid, he muſt have his Horſe, but that he would find him at the Hoſpital Fence. Mr. Gray ſaid, perhaps he might meet with more of his Company; and was anſwered, that if it ſhould ſo happen, tell them, you have ſeen John the Barber; and then rode off at a full Gallop.—The Horſe was found faſtened to the Fence.

We are ſorry to acquaint the Publick, that the Deaths of ſome People, who have been carried off ſince the hot Weather, are ſaid to be owing to their Indiſcretion in drinking cold Water while they were warm, notwithſtanding the many Cautions that have been given againſt it, and that ſeveral are in a dangerous Way now, from the ſame Cauſe.——In ſuch a Situation, the pouring into the Stomach, immediately after the Water has been drank, a Wine Glaſs or two of unmixed Rum, has been recommended, and which, we have heard, has very lately proved an effectual Remedy.

Auguſt 21. On Saturday Night laſt, about Ten o'Clock, Mr. Joſeph Penroſe, of this City, was ſtopt by a Man on the Lower Ferry Road, who he ſaw ſtanding in the Middle of the Highway, leaning upon his Gun, at ſome Diſtance before he got up to him. The Fellow demanded his Money, preſenting his Piece at him; upon which he gave him a Dollar, ſaying it was all the Money he had. He then aſked for his Watch, but was told he had none. He afterwards deſired him to give him his Pocket-Book, which he did; there was no Money in it, except a Shilling Bill; but as it contained ſome Papers of Value, he told him he hoped he would return them, which he promiſed to do. He then deſired him to diſmount, telling him he muſt have his Horſe; upon which he was acquainted with the Buſineſs Mr. Penroſe was on, going down the Country, to inform a Gentlewoman of her Huſband's Death, when the Rogue ſeemed to ſhew ſome Concern, and ſaid he would leave the Horſe at the Sugar-Houſe. Mr. Penroſe deſired he would leave him at Powell's Fence, which he refuſed, being ſworn, as he ſaid. Mr. Penroſe then ſaid, perhaps he ſhould meet with more of his Company; and, in Return, was deſired to tell them Peter the Barber, had been with him. The Horſe and Pocket-Book were found together at the Hoſpital Fence.—Mr. Penroſe, before he got up to the Man who robbed him, paſſed by a Man lying in the Road on his Back, and was met by another Man on Horſeback, who aſked him, how he did; whether or not they were Accomplices, he could not ſay, but none of them were to be ſeen when he returned for his Horſe.

And on Tueſday, Dennis Scanlan, a Butcher of this Place, was taken up, on Suſpition of being one of the Robbers, when Mr. Gray's Watch was found upon him. He was carried before the Mayor of the City, and examined, but confeſſed nothing; after which he was ordered to Gaol, where he owned to the Goaler, that he robbed both Mr. Gray and Mr. Penroſe, and that he had no Confederates.

On Thurſday Night laſt died, after a ſhort Illneſs, in the 30th Year of her Age, Mrs. MARY FRANKLIN, the virtuous and amiable Conſort of the late PETER FRANKLIN, Eſq; of this City.

Laſt Sunday the Ship Live Oak, Capt. Andrew Lundberry, arrived here in ſix Weeks from Briſtol; and from the Engliſh Papers brought by her, we have taken the following Articles of Intelligence, viz.

ST. JAMES's, July 11.

HIS Majeſty in Council, was this Day pleaſed to order, that the Parliament, which ſtands prorogued to Saturday the 12th of this inſtant July, ſhould be further prorogued to Tueſday the 16th of September next.

LONDON, JULY 15.

We are aſſured that France is now reſolved, in good Earneſt, to break that glorious Peace, which ſo highly pleaſed its Maker, as to will that his Epitaph might forget all the great Things he ever did, except this alone.—A ſure Mark of the hoſtile Intentions of France is, her taking a certain illuſtrious General into her Service, whom ſhe has compaſſed Sea and Land to make a Conqueſt of, in which ſubtle Scheme it ſeems ſhe has been but too ſucceſsful.

It is confidently ſaid, that it is with the Counſel and Approbation of a certain Northern Potentate, that a great General has quitted his Service, and entered into that of France, between whom and his late Maſter a Treaty of Alliance is ſecretly negociating, to the Prejudice of thoſe who were his Dupes in the late War.

From the Weſt End of the Town we hear, that an illuſtrious Perſonage, whoſe late ſudden Defection aſtoniſhes every Body, has ſent his Ribbon, and the other Enſigns of a certain Noble Order, to the Court from whence he received it.

It is reported Hoſtages will be immediately demanded of the Court of Spain, for the Payment of the Manilla Ranſom.

Friday ſome Diſpatches, ſaid to be of Importance, were again received from Sir Andrew Mitchell, his Britannick Majeſty's Ambaſſador at the Court of Berlin.

It is rumoured, that a powerful Prince on the Continent is ſecretly entering into certain Treaties, repugnant to his Engagements with Great-Britain.

July 17. The following Lords and Gentlemen, among many, it is ſaid, are to compoſe Part of the Miniſtry, Duke of Bedford, Earl Temple, Mr. Pitt, Lord Lyttleton, Lord Briſtol, Lord Cornwallis, Lord Forteſcue, Lord North, Colonel Barre, Sir George Saville, Sir George Yonge, &c.

There never was a greater Likelihood of the old Syſtem of Policy taking Place again, than at preſent, for, if the Report be true, which ſeems highly probable, that a Treaty is ſecretly negociating, between France and a certain Northern Prince, the Empreſs Queen will deſert the former and ſeek the Alliance of her old and natural Ally Great-Britain, whom ſhe ſo ſhamefully, and to her Coſt, deſerted in the late War; but France, no Doubt, will think the Loſs amply made up, by making an Ally of a Prince, whoſe unparalelled Abilities, both in the Field and Cabinet, hath, already, baffled the united Efforts made to cruſh him by two mighty Empires, and four moſt powerful Nations; and by getting the greateſt General in Europe to head her Armies.

It is now ſaid, there will be no Abatement in our full Demands on the Court of Madrid, for their immediate Diſcharge of the Manilla Ranſom.

Some thouſand Seamen, we hear, will ſoon be wanted for actual Service on board his Majeſty's Ships of War.

Admiral Sir Charles Bridges Rodney, it is ſaid, will be appointed to command a Fleet of Obſervation, to cruize off the Straits and Cape St. Vincent.

The Aſſertion in an Evening Paper of Yeſterday, "That the Court of France, after entering into a Treaty of Alliance with a reſtleſs Northern Potentate, and taking into her Service a great General, who had lately reſigned, with the latter's Conſent, was reſolved in good Earneſt to break the late Treaty of Peace," gains little Credit; for however reſtleſs that Power may be, and however willing to come to Blows, there is one Thing that will doubtleſs protract a Declaration of that Sort, which is the low State of the French Finances.—But ſhould they venture, under the Diſadvantage of real Want, to ſtrike a Blow, they will doubtleſs find, together with their Abettors, that, however great our Burthens may be, many of thoſe Men, who ſo lately chaſtiſed them all over the World, are ſtill living, and ready and willing, on the leaſt Notice, to chaſtiſe them again.

An Order is ſaid to be ſent over to Ireland, for the ſeveral Forts and Caſtles in that Kingdom to be thoro'ly repaired.

It is talked, that the Military Eſtabliſhments of Jamaica, and the other Britiſh Iſlands in the Weſt-Indies, are to be conſiderably augmented.

Private Letters from Breſt mention, that a Corvette, with Orders, had juſt been diſpatched to the French Iſlands in the Weſt-Indies.

Colonel Deſmaretz, late his Majeſty's Commiſſary at Dunkirk, is to ſet out ſoon for that Place, to ſurvey ſome new Works, ſaid to be privately carrying on there, contrary to Treaty.

They write from Amſterdam, that Commiſſions were received for buying up two thouſand Tons of Naval Stores, for the Service of France.

This Week the Purſers of ſome capital Ships fitting out, received Orders to indent at the Victualling-Office for ſix Months.

It is ſaid that neither the Earl of Bute, nor the Duke of Bedford, will accept of any Poſt, but that they are to have the Recommendation of certain Places of Honour and Profit; but not to interfere in any Places of Power.

In a private Letter from Berlin we are told, that the Emperor of Germany and the King of Pruſſia had lately had an Interview ſomewhere on the Confines of Saxony. Whether this was a Meeting of Curioſity or Civility, or both, or whether ſome Buſineſs of Conſequence hath been at that Time tranſacted between theſe two great Perſonages, Time only will diſcover.

They write from Leghorn, that the Cham of the Tartars, had promiſed the Grand Signior to check the Progreſs of the Georgian Rebels, at the Head of 50,000 Men.

July 16. The public Papers have ſpoken with great Confidence upon the Changes in the Miniſtry, but we can aſſure our Readers that the talked of Arrangements are all Conjecture.—At the firſt of this Tranſaction his Majeſty called Mr. Pitt to his Cloſet, without giving the leaſt Intimacy of ſuch a Step to any of his Council; and ſince the King and Commoner have entered into Treaty, they have kept their Intentions entirely to themſelves.—Mr. Pitt was Yeſterday with his Majeſty from ten till one at the Queen's Palace, and his Majeſty afterwards had a Levee at St. James's, but no Declaration was made of the propoſed Alterations.

Mr. Pitt, ſay ſome of our Politicians, will bring us into a War. No, ſay the others, he is the only Man in England that will prevent a War: For why? Our Neighbours will be afraid to quarrel with him.

It is rumoured that the late extraordinary Councils have not been confined to the intended Changes in the Miniſtry, but were the Reſult of certain very important Advices from the Continent.

It is ſaid that a Bill will be brought into Parliament the next Seſſion, appointing Elections for Members of Parliament to be by Ballot; which, it is thought, will almoſt totally prevent all future Corruption on ſuch Occaſions; as it will be impoſſible to know on which Side an Elector votes, and conſequently render Candidates extremely cautious whom they truſt with a Bribe.

The Hon. Eaſt-India Company have received freſh Advice over Land from Lord Clive, dated December laſt. Among other Things, it is ſaid, his Lordſhip has remitted to China £. 300,000 to pay for the Cargoes of the Ships that may arrive there, and alſo paid off about the ſame Sum, for which the Company paid Intereſt at the Rate of Eight per Cent.

The Prince Stadtholder is expected in Town by the Middle of next Month, and we hear great Preparations are making to receive him with a Splendor ſuitable to his Dignity, and that Leiceſter Houſe is appointed for the Reſidence of his Royal Highneſs, which is now fitting up and decorating for that Purpoſe.

Authentic Advice has been received at Paris, of the Death of Elizabeth Farneſe, the Queen of Spain, and Mother of the preſent King.—Her Majeſty was of the Houſe of Parma, and was born the 25th of October 1692. Her Iſſue, beſides the King, is the Infant Don Lewis, born July 25, 1727, and the Infanta Donna Maria Antonietta, born November 17, 1729, and eſpouſed on the 12th of April 1750, to his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Savoy.

It is reported that Admiral Tyrrel, who died on his Voyage from the Weſt-Indies to London, has left a Fortune of £. 100,000 among ſt his Relations.

Yeſterday the Eaſt-India Stock ſold at 228.

It is now ſaid the Hon. Lord Marriſchal, who ſome Years ago by the Favour of his Sovereign returned from Exile, by parliamentary Sanction recovered the Reverſion of his Eſtate to the Extent of £. 12,000 a Year, and in Virtue of an Act of Parliament had again purchaſed all his forfeited Eſtates at an under Value, as out of Regard to him others would not interfere, has not only ſold all theſe Eſtates and returned to the Continent, but, having no Heirs nor near Relations, has determined to end his Days under the Wings of the King of Pruſſia, who is to be his Heir.

Letters from Senegal mention, that there has been ſo great a Mortality among the Engliſh Garriſons on the Coaſt, that there will be Occaſion for a ſpeedy Reinforcement of freſh Troops, the Governor having wrote Home for that Purpoſe.

July 29. Among other Promotions talked of, it is ſaid, the Right Honourable Sir John Cuſt, Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, is to be created a Peer.

The Honourable Mr. Charles Yorke, to be Lord Chief Juſtice of the Common Pleas. And,

The Right Honourable William Dowdeſwell, to be Speaker of the Houſe of Commons.

We hear that Mr. Townſhend has at laſt (by the Interceſſion of a noble Duke, who could not be in Office without him) been prevailed on to accept of the Chancellorſhip of the Exchequer.

It is reported that three foreign Miniſters have received Inſtructions not to communicate the Subject of any further Diſpatches, till it ſhall be known, whether the Great Commoner take the Lead or not.

We are informed that a great Perſon, who had been thrice offered a conſiderable Office in the expected Change, and which he had often declined; ſoon after, on changing his Sentiments, and mentioning his Willingneſs to accept it, was told, that he was too late in his Application.

Another great Man, it is ſaid, will retire with a Patent of Precedency in the Law.

His Majeſty has appointed ——— Breſby, Eſq; to be Conſul-General at Madrid.

It is ſaid, that the Change in the Miniſtry here, as ſoon as it is ſettled, will be productive of many and great Alterations in the civil Adminiſtration of Government in Ireland.

Thurſday Afternoon laſt, the Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury ſigned all the Warrants and other Writings then ready, and declared their Commiſſions at an End, ſince which no Board has been held.

It is ſaid an Engliſh Nobleman of Diſtinction, having Occaſion to paſs through Berlin, was refuſed an Audience of the Pruſſian Monarch, though he earneſtly deſired that Honour, not from any political Views, but merely through his Paſſion for Literature.

Letters from Berlin ſay, that the Sieur Biettoſelſky, Brigadier in the Empreſs of Ruſſia's Service, and Miniſter-Plenipotentiary to the Court of Saxony, is arrived at that City, in his Way to Dreſden, charged with a Commiſſion to engage Prince Charles of Saxony, on Conſideration of certain Conditions, to renounce his Pretenſions to Courland, in Favour of Prince Earneſt John Biren, and his Heirs.

So great has been the Demand this Summer, for Slaves from the African Coaſt, that it is ſaid, the Price of Angola Negroes has riſen 25 per Cent. ſince laſt May.

It is ſaid, that ſome thouſand Marines will be ſent out in the Ships which the Eaſt-India Company took into their Service, laſt Week.

We hear Commodore Spry is to touch at Algiers, to ſettle the Affairs of Britiſh Mediterranean Paſſes with the Dey.

July 31. Yeſterday there was a great Levee at St. James's, and afterwards there was a Privy Council, which broke up at four o'Clock, their Majeſties afterwards dined at the Queen's Palace, and in the Evening returned to Richmond.

Yeſterday the Earl of Northington reſigned the Great Seals to his Majeſty, which were given to Lord Camden, who afterwards came out of Court with the proper Regalia of his Office.

The ſame Day the Earl of Northington kiſſed his Majeſty's Hand, on being appointed Lord Preſident of the Council, in the Room of the Earl of Winchelſea.

The Right Honourable William Pitt, likewiſe kiſſed his Majeſty's Hand Yeſterday, on being created a Peer of Great-Britain, by the Title of Earl of Chatham, and Viſcount Pynſent of Burton-Pynſent in the County of Somerſet; and alſo on being appointed Lord Keeper of the Privy Seal, in the Room of the Duke of Newcaſtle.

Sir Eardley Wilmot is appointed Chief Juſtice of the Court of Common Pleas, in the Room of Lord Camden.

William de Grey, Eſq; Attorney-General, in the Room of the Honourable Charles Yorke, who has reſigned.

The Honourable Mr. Stuart M'Kenzie, (Brother to Lord Bute) Privy Seal for Scotland.

Mr. James Grenville, Pay-Maſter.

The Honourable Hans Stanley is to go Ambaſſador to Peterſburgh: The Earl of Rochford to Paris.

We are informed the Earl of Egmont is to continue Firſt Lord of the Admiralty.

We hear that before long, we ſhall have Advice of ſome diſagreeable Alliances being formed in the North.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, July 20.

"We have received a Confirmation of the News relative to Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick having reſigned all his Employments to the King of Pruſſia; but we are at the ſame Time informed, that his Pruſſian Majeſty will re-inveſt him with them in a few Days."

It is ſaid that one of the Repreſentatives of this City will be created a Peer of this Kingdom, with the Title of Baron of Fonthill, in the County of Wilts.

It is ſaid a Patent is preparing for creating the Right Honourable the Lord Camden an Earl, by the Title of Earl of Camden, and Baron of Chiſlehurſt, in Kent.

It is ſaid that in Caſe the Hon. Mr. Charles Yorke ſucceeds Lord Camden, as Chief Juſtice of the Common Pleas, he will be called up by Writ to the Houſe of Peers, as Lord Yorke, Baron of Wimple, in the County of Cambridge.

DOMINICA, (Charlotte-Town) July 23.

On Sunday the 6th Inſt. a French Guarda Coſta, mounted with ſix Swivel-Guns, and full of Men, commanded by M. Dupont Touillolle, chaſed a ſmall Schooner to an Anchor in Portſmouth Harbour, (commonly called Prince Rupert's Bay,) when ſhe manned her Boat, boarded the ſaid Schooner, and carrying her out, proceeded to Guadaloupe. But on a proper Repreſentation of this audacious Affair being made to Governor Scott, he immediately diſpatched an Officer to Guadaloupe to demand the Schooner; on whoſe Application the Veſſel, with every Thing on board, was immediately delivered up. The General of Guadaloupe behaved extremely polite, and promiſed to take Care that no ſuch Inſult, ſo highly derogatory to the Honour of the Crown, ſhould be offered for the future. The only Excuſe that Touillolle made for his Conduct, was, that he chaſed the Schooner from the French Coaſt, and therefore imagined he could make her a legal Prize.

BRIDGE-TOWN, (in Barbados) JUNE 28.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Tobago, dated the 20th May, 1766.

"It is with great Pleaſure I can inform you, we have had a very fine Sale of Lands; 9196 Acres were diſpoſed of, which, with the four thouſand Acres ſold laſt Year, is a greater Number than has been ſold in any of the ceded Iſlands. As there are many reſpectable Names in the Liſt of Purchaſers, I make not the leaſt Doubt of this being a flouriſhing Colony very ſoon.

"The Lands in Courland Bay, down to Sandy-Point, are, I believe, all diſpoſed of; the other Lots which are ſold lye in Barbados Bay, Carrapuſe Bay, at Dog River, and Grand Riviere."

Auguſt 30. In a London Paper of the twelfth of July, is the following Paragraph: "It is ſaid that above 5000 l. were ſubſcribed Yeſterday by the Merchants of this City, towards the Relief of the unhappy Sufferers by the late dreadful Fire at Bridge-Town in Barbados."

By Thomas Workman, Eſq; who arrived here the 26th Inſtant, in a Flag of Truce from Martinico, we have the following melancholy Account of a moſt dreadful Hurricane that happened there between the 13th and 14th Inſtant: Mr. Workman arrived at Fort-Royal on the 16th in the Evening, and was informed, that on the 13th Inſtant, a violent Gale of Wind from W. N. W. came on, which increaſed till about Eleven o'Clock at Night; from that Time till Morning it blew a Hurricane, that all the Veſſels at St. Pierre's, and many others at Fort-Royal, were driven on Shore, and utterly loſt, among which were twenty-five from different Ports in North-America: That by the Returns from the ſeveral Pariſhes, many Houſes, and the chief Part of their Sugar-Works, had been blown down; that to the Number of 800 Souls, white and black, had periſhed; and that their Canes and Ground-Proviſions were entirely deſtroyed. In Conſequence of which, an Ordinance was publiſhed giving Liberty to Engliſh Veſſels to import Bread and Flour, paying a Duty of only One per Cent. to the French King, and other Proviſions agreeable to their former Ordinances.
